

BRITAIN MOBILIZES FOR INDUSTRIAL STRUGGLE

FOUR MILLION WORKERS TO STRIKE WITH THE MINERS

5,000,000 REPRESENT ENTIRE TRADES UNIONS OF GREAT BRITAIN

TROOPS START MOVING. MILITARY AND NAVAL ACTIVITY GAINS MOMENTUM

By CLIFFORD L. DAY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
London, May 3.—Great Britain was mobilizing today for what may be the greatest industrial struggle in history.

Approximately 4,000,000 workers were under orders to strike at midnight tonight in sympathy with the 1,000,000 miners already out. The 5,000,000 workers directly involved represent the entire Trades Union organization of Great Britain.

Government efforts to avert the calamity Sunday apparently failed when the general council of the Trades Union Congress rejected Premier Baldwin's ultimatum demanding immediate acceptance of the royal coal commission's report. The unionists interpreted this to mean the acceptance of decreased wages and stuck to their position demanding maintenance of present wages and of the seven-hour day.

Country Under Martial Law

The country was virtually under martial law, pursuant to King George's declaration of the existence of an emergency and Baldwin's assumption of the vast power to govern by decree conferred upon him by the emergency powers act.

"War has been declared," said J. H. Thomas, cabinet member during the late labor government and a union leader.

"Recruiting stations for volunteers will be opened today," said Sir William Johnson Hicks, home secretary, in answer.

"His Majesty's government has taken all steps to maintain the supply of food, light and power and fuel, with protection for all those engaged in these services and for the preservation of law and order."

Troops Start Moving

Troops began moving Saturday and the military and naval activity is gaining momentum, although it has not involved a large number of soldiers or sailors.

A battalion of infantry was en route today to the South Wales mine fields. Troops and sailors were being concentrated in their barracks. All marines on local passes have been summoned to Portsmouth, but naval leave has not yet been curtailed except for some radio men who have been recalled, presumably for coastal wireless duty.

London Daily Mail Hit

The strike hit the London Daily Mail today, compelling the London office of that great paper to close down owing to a strike in the mechanical departments of union men, who objected to an editorial prepared for today's paper. The editorial denied that the general strike could be viewed as an industrial dispute and called it a threat against the life of the community.

The Mail called on all citizens to support the king and the country.

Government to Broadcast

Foreseeing the possibility of all British papers being closed by the strike, the government has taken over the broadcasting facilities of the country and is already putting bulletins on the air.

Violence has occurred in Glasgow and London, in each case the result of fascist efforts to heckle labor or socialist outdoor speakers. Police arrested two fascist leaders in Glasgow and a half dozen in London. Great labor meetings took place elsewhere in Britain without fighting.

To Maintain Railroad Service

The government announced today that plans had been completed to maintain vital railroad service. A spokesman for the admiralty urged all available citizens to enlist in the organization for the maintenance of the supplies, upon which the government will rely for local transportation and distribution of local food supplies. Food stocks were said to be normal.

The United Press was authoritatively informed that London possessed cold storage meat stocks sufficient for one month without rationing. Shortages of fresh meats and vegetables and other foods undoubtedly would be felt soon after general stoppage of work.

EPIDEMIC OF SUICIDE IN TWIN CITIES

Minneapolis, May 3.—(UP)—An epidemic of suicide which has swept the Twin Cities took another victim today and resulted in serious injury to another. WAGE DEMANDS OF MIDDLE WEST RAIL MEN MADE

SEEK WAGE INCREASES AVERAGING MORE THAN $1 A DAY

RESUMPTION OF CONFERENCE ON AT CHICAGO

Chicago, May 3.—(UP)—Demands of middle western railroad men for wage increases averaging more than $1 a day will be heard today at a resumption of conferences between union representatives and middle-western rail men.

The Chicago conference is one of three divisional sessions being conducted throughout the country and affects all rail employees in the middle west and west. A similar conference was held last week in Washington for the southern group. The wage increases asked will affect all trainmen and are based on a plea that the peak wages of 1920 be restored. Those wages were reduced 12 per cent, but since have been increased 5 per cent over the lower figures. The trainmen seek a return of the additional 7 per cent.

COMMONS APPROVES ACTION OF KING

By MINOTT SAUNDERS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
London, May 3.—The house of commons today approved the action of King George in declaring the existence of a national emergency. The vote was 308 to 108.

Premier Stanley Baldwin put the motion which resulted in the commons vote. He rose pale, but determined, and amid a stillness that was startling in comparison to the hubbub that had gone before, said: "I have a message from the king signed with his own hand."

This message proved to be the proclamation declaring that the country was confronted with a national emergency. Baldwin read the message and then moved that the commons reply to his Majesty that an emergency did in fact exist.

"This is one of the gravest occasions ever to confront us," said the premier.

"No settlement of the mining dispute is possible until two points have been achieved:

"1. A very different spirit.
"2. New machinery for wage arrangements."

POUND STERLING TAKES A DROP

New York, May 3.—The pound sterling showed a drop of 5-8 point to $4.85 1/2 at the opening of the foreign exchange dealings here today. The whole foreign exchange market was lower. French francs reaching a new low for all time at $9.327, off $9.991 1/2, and Belgian francs dropping to a new low since 1924 at $9.238, off $9.011 1/2.

London, May 3.—The pound sterling showed a sharp falling off at the opening of the foreign exchanges here today, reflecting the chaos of a general strike abroad.

The pound was quoted at $4.85 1/2, off 17-23 from Saturday's close. Belgian and French francs fell to new low records, the French quoted at 148 1/2 to the pound sterling and the Belgian 145. At Saturday's close (Continued on Page 5)

SITUATION IN ENGLAND VERY GRAVE

HORRIBLY REMINISCENT OF THE FIRST DAYS IN AUGUST, 1914

GOVERNMENT REGARDS STRIKE AS CHALLENGE TO ITS AUTHORITY

By SIR PHILLIP GIBBS
(Noted War Correspondent)
(Copyright, 1926, by United Press)
London, May 3.—The situation in England is very grave and is horribly reminiscent of the first days of August, 1914.

From the moment when the Trades Union congress threatened the British government with a general strike if there was no settlement of the coal dispute, it was inevitable that the government should regard this as a challenge to its authority.

To my mind the British trades unions have committed suicide. However long a general strike may last it is certain to be defeated.

The great body of British people have no revolutionary instincts, are utterly loyal to old traditions of the country. Not only well-to-do classes but masses of the workers themselves will support the government in every possible way and at all cost of personal sacrifice.

If all the trades unionists answer the call of their leaders, which is highly doubtful, they only number 4,000,000 workers and outside their ranks are 10,000,000 non-union workers, most of whom are antagonistic to revolutionary methods. The labor party in supporting the action of the Trades Union congress, has committed a fatal political error.

Until the threat of a general strike was delivered there was no doubt that there was great sympathy with the position of the miners. It was felt even by the conservatives that discussions on the coal crisis had been too long delayed to begin with and, in the end, too abruptly concluded by the sudden withdrawal of the subsidy.

It was also felt that the government had played its cards badly in not keeping open the negotiations and giving the men longer rope for discussion.

But that sympathy has now been thrown away and the scenes in England today prove conclusively that the nation will not allow itself to be over-awed.

There is no sign of panic anywhere but in every British heart there is grave anxiety as to the future.

He was in his 76th year.

However, he was better today, and told the United Press that the attack was not serious and that he expected to be himself in a few days.

On his way home from Bermuda a little more than a week ago, Debs suffered from a severe attack of seasickness. He was not over it when the attack of lumbago came. He has been confined to his home four days, but is now able to take short walks.

DESPONDENT WIFE SHOTS TWO AND KILLS HERSELF

MRS. EMILY KARLEN SLAYS HER TWO GROWN UP CHILDREN

CHICAGO WOMAN THEN TURNS THE GUN ON HERSELF

Chicago, May 3.—(UP)—Despondent after a long period of ill health, Mrs. Emily Karlen today shot and killed her two grown children and then committed suicide at their home in a fashionable residential district.

John Karlen, the husband, was in the yard at the time of the shooting. Karlen, sales manager for a granite company, arose early and was working in the garden at the rear of the house.

Mrs. Karlen arose some time later, went to the rear door and spoke to her husband. She shut the door and soon Karlen heard three shots fired. Hurrying to the house he found all doors locked.

After gaining entrance he found his son, Alfred, 23, in bed dangerously wounded. The young man died within a few minutes.

The daughter, 35, who was secretary to a pastor, was found dead in her bedroom.

Mrs. Karlen's body was crumpled in a clothes closet where she had apparently dashed after committing the two murders. She had shot herself in the head.

Friends of the family said the woman had appeared disconsolate for several years following an attack of heart disease.

WARD T. VAN ORMAN IS BELIEVED TO BE THE WINNER

OFFICIAL DISTANCES HAVE NOT YET BEEN ANNOUNCED

Little Rock, Ark., May 3.—(UP)—All balloons of the national race for the Litchfield trophy and the right to represent America in the Gordon Bennett cup race, are known to have landed and Ward T. Van Orman, veteran pilot, was believed today winner for the third successive year. Official distances have not been announced.

It is believed Van Orman won the race and established a free balloon record when he landed near the James river at Petersburg, Va., early Friday, a distance of approximately 780 miles from Little Rock, the starting point.

Last of the entries to be accounted for was the United States army balloon, the S-20, piloted by Lieutenant A. W. Gray, who reported at Langley Field, Va.

From unofficial records it is believed John Boettner, piloting the Akron NAA, took second honors and that Captain Hawthorne Gray, piloting the United States army S-21, placed third.

THINKS BRITAIN NEARING BRINK OF CIVIL WAR

PREMIER BALDWIN ADDRESSES THE HOUSE OF COMMONS

SAYS GOVERNMENT INTERVENTION BROUGHT NO PEACE

By MINOTT SAUNDERS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
London, May 3.—Great Britain is nearer to civil war now than she has been for centuries, in the opinion of Premier Baldwin.

Baldwin addressed the house of commons today immediately after the house had passed his motion that parliament approve King George's action in declaring the existence of a national emergency. The house approved by a vote of 308 to 108.

"Democratic freedom in this country is entering upon a course which can only substitute tyranny," said Baldwin. "I rely on the character of our people to see this trouble through. For the last two years I have striven to maintain peace. I have failed so far. Everything that I care for has been smashed to bits so far. That does not take my faith away from me. I will take up the bits and start again. I may not see what I have dreamed of in my life time but I know it will come."

"I do not think the labor leaders would have assented to a general strike," said Baldwin, "had they realized that they were challenging the government and bringing the country nearer civil war than it has been centuries past."

"Each time the government has intervened in the mining dispute since 1919, the result has been full of the seeds of future disagreements instead of a lasting settlement," he added.

"The owners and miners will have to find a way of handling their own business independent of government interference. The two parties are singularly anti-pathetic."

"The subsidy (which cost the British treasury approximately $102,000,000) was worth while," Baldwin continued, "to get the Samuel report (the royal coal commission report which Sir Herbert Samuel, as commission chairman, delivered to Baldwin)."

J. H. Thomas, cabinet officer in the late labor government and spokesman of the National Union of Railway Men, replied to Baldwin, emphasizing that the interests of the country were paramount and asserting that the general strike action had not been taken by unpatriotic men or revolutionists but by men believing that a general strike was the only course open to labor.

Premier Baldwin distributed the blame for what had happened between the miners and the mine owners.

Baldwin promised government protection during and after the strike to any men who would defy the strike order and remain on their jobs.

"No man who remains at work," he said, "shall be prejudicially affected after this is over."

ILLINOIS NOW TAKES HAND TO END GANG WAR

MACHINE GUN RULE IN CHICAGO IS TO BE ELIMINATED

GRAND JURY INVESTIGATES, ATTORNEY GENERAL JOINS PROSECUTION

By MAX BUCKINGHAM
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, May 3.—The state of Illinois today took a hand in the war to end the machine gun rule of gangland in Chicago with Attorney General Oscar Carlstrom directing the evidence.

Carlstrom was invited to participate in the case by State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe, whose star assistant was slain last week.

Carlstrom's activity in the move to rid Chicago and suburbs of the atrocities of the beer war, which in six years has caused 92 murders, centered about the grand jury investigation of three latest beer murders, those of Billy McSwiggin, Jimmy Doherty and Thomas Duffy. The grand jury will be organized today and the first witnesses will be Coroner Oscar Wolf and Harry Eugene Kelly, president of the Union League club, both of whom have issued statements that the beer war was closely allied with Chicago's political situation.

The state's highest prosecuting officer was brought into the investigation at the personal request of State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe.

"The thing that prompts me to ask the attorney general to take charge is that he is the chief law enforcing officer of Illinois," Crowe said, in a statement after Carlstrom had accepted the task of unfolding Chicago's drama of crime.

Carlstrom added that he and the state's attorney would work hand in hand in bringing about an end to gangland's rule and that the probe would be searching, vigorous and would last a considerable time.

"We expect to prosecute the inquiry by every possible means," Carlstrom said.

Neither would indicate today just what line of questioning they expected to follow in presenting facts of the McSwiggin-Doherty-Duffy murder to the jury. This last trio of deaths, however, will be just one case as the complete program of crime which has been unfolded in Chicago recently will be presented before the grand jury which is to be sworn in by Judge William V. Brothman, acting chief justice of the criminal court.

HAUGEN BILL IS OPPOSED BY COOLIDGE

ITS PASSAGE WOULD MEAN $375,000,000 DRAIN ON THE TREASURY

COMES UP IN HOUSE TOMORROW, DEBATE LIMITED TO 4 DAYS

By WILLIAM J. McEVROY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, May 3.—Administration leaders and farm bloc chiefs in congress prepared today for the fight over farm relief legislation which has already become the most bitter combat of the Coolidge administration.

The Haugen bill, opposed by President Coolidge, because of its $375,000,000 drain on the treasury, will be brought up in the house tomorrow under special rule, with debate limited to four days.

The real battle will come over what form of relief shall be extended. The entire week will be devoted to discussion of plans suggested, particularly the three bills presented by the house agricultural committee.

Administration supporters hope to pass the Tinecher plan, providing a farm board and a $100,000,000 loan fund to enable farmers to keep up prices by financing the sale of surplus crops. President Coolidge and Secretary of Agriculture Jardine have approved this measure, but they will hold out to the last against the Haugen bill, which is supported by most democrats and middle western republicans.

Administration leaders expect to offer the Tinecher bill or the Curtis-Aaswell measure, which will create a national farm board with a fund of only $10,000,000 as a substitute amendment to the Haugen bill, after the four days of house debate. The odds however, appear in favor of passage of the Haugen bill.

If the democrats support the Haugen bill solidly in the senate, it may be passed there and President Coolidge will be confronted with the necessity of vetoing a measure which he has opposed with all his strength, a bill, which he views as certain to cause a tremendous deficit in the treasury if enacted.

Several state delegations caucused today to decide what plan they will adopt.

COMPANY REEDMS 15 YEARS BEFORE MATURITY, GOLD NOTES

Chicago, May 3.—(UP)—The board of directors of the Middle West Utilities Company voted today to call for redemption and payment July 1, 1926, at par and accrued interest and a premium of 7 1/2 per cent upon the principal, all outstanding secured eight per cent gold notes, Series C.

The notes were to mature July 1, 1941, the company thus redeeming them 15 years before maturity.

Upon retirement of these notes, the Middle West Utilities co. will have no funded debt.

HAGEN IS DENIED APPEAL FOR A NEW HEARING

Bismarck, N. D., May 3.—(UP)—The North Dakota supreme court today denied the appeal for a new trial of H. J. Hagen, former president of the defunct Scandinavian American bank of Fargo, under sentence for receiving deposits in an insolvent bank.

Hagen was convicted in 1924 and sentenced to two and a half years in the state penitentiary.

Motion for a new trial was based on the loss of stenographic notes taken at the first.

The institution of which Hagen was head had been known in the state as the "nonpartisan bank" because most of the stock was held by the company formed to finance the league. It closed with large sums of state money.

Fargo, N. D., May 3.—(UP)—Another appeal from the sentence imposed upon H. J. Hagen for receiving deposits in an insolvent bank is pending, U. L. Burdick, attorney for Hagen, announced here today.

BALMY WEATHER REPLACED BY A STIFF N. W. WIND

Milwaukee, Wis., May 3.—Balmy weather of the past few days was replaced today by a stiff northwest wind, which brought with it a light snowfall and sent the mercury down around the 35 degree above zero mark.

High wind which preceded the rain of yesterday broke many windows in this city and vicinity and damaged buildings under construction.

At 7 P. M. yesterday the thermometer showed a mark of 40 degrees, a drop from 77 at noon.

GIRL DIED OF BURNS FROM EXPLOSION

CAR EXPLODED, LIGHTED LANTERN SETTING OFF BLAST

Fargo, N. D., May 3.—(UP)—Ortha Qually, 8, daughter of Herman Qually, a farmer living near Kindred, died in a hospital here today of burns received in an explosion.

The explosion occurred late Saturday at a Kindred filling station, where the little girl was helping her father fill his automobile. A lighted lantern set off the blast.

The father was burned but is expected to recover.

5 JURORS ARE ACCEPTED IN BANK BANDIT CASE

Anoka, Minn., May 3.—(UP)—Five jurors had been accepted at noon today for the trial of Tom Colcord, John Anderson and Clarence Salme, charged with holding up the Anoka National bank, December 8, 1925.

The trio was captured at Shevport, La., and returned here for trial. Selection of the jury started with the opening of court this morning. It is expected complete before adjournment this afternoon.

The robbery of which the three defendants are accused was executed shortly after the bank opened for business. Customers and employees were held at bay while bandits calmly ransacked the cash drawer and vault. Loot was $11,500.

The men arrested in the south were indicted by the last grand jury.

Resistance of Phones

Many people have the mistaken notion that the resistance of headphones is a measure of their quality. Actually, radio headphones of 2,500 ohms resistance may be much better than others of 5,000 ohms resistance. The resistance is determined by the length, size and kind of wire used in their construction. Their performance is a matter of proper engineering design and the use of good materials.

Balloon Sleeves, Wide, Long Skirts

Basque Waists Also Given Prominence by Lanvin, Paris Designer.

Jeanne Lanvin has actually combined basque waists and balloon sleeves, with the wide, long skirts of 1880, into afternoon gowns that are extremely graceful if somewhat startling, says a Paris fashion writer in the New York Times.

For these afternoon gowns, Lanvin usually chooses a quaint checked taffeta. One such, in a gray-and-white check, with white organdie collar and trimming relief, was cut with the fitted bodice extending well below the waistline at the back in a deep half-circle, so that the extremely full skirt gathered to this foundation had a decided up-in-front line to add to its apparent width. The skirt fell nearly to the ankles at the back. The sleeves, gathered into a cap at the shoulder and into narrow band cuffs at the wrist, were immense in size—balloon is the only word to describe them. As a last touch of audacity, the gown had a two-inch straight belt, fastened tightly about the natural waistline.

Lanvin is not the only designer who has experimented with the robe de style, though no other house dares equal her exaggeration and her stateliness. Drecoll shows various pliant sleeveless gowns under this designation, for which he uses pompadour taffetas, or soft satins in plain colors, both materials new this season. He likes the fitted bodice cut in a deep V to the waistline in front, with a vest inserted. Like Lanvin, he cuts the bodice much longer in back to give the up-in-front line so smart just now. The skirts are two-tiered, very bouffant and very short. One lovely model at this house was in taffeta of palest yellow.

Another interesting model is a light blue afternoon dress of heavy crepe in powder blue, with front of net ruffles piped with silver. The sleeves are puffed with ruffles and tightened at the wrist. With this dress is worn a hat to match—of silk hair with flowers at the front.

At Boue Souers, the robes de style make the wearer look as though she had stepped out of a Fragonard picture; for this house specializes in delicate hand embroidery on sheerest linen and uses this ethereal material to form the entire lower part of the distended skirts of pastel-tinted taffetas. There is a subtle hint of the jazz age in the black taffeta and lace gowns, embroidered in rosebuds, that Bechoff adds to the experiment, due probably to the sophisticated color and to the shortness of the skirts and certainly not to the dignified, tiny parasol accompanying each costume; for tiny lace parasols are known to be decidedly mid-Victorian. Perhaps it is because of the four-inch puffing at either hip just where the fitted waist joins the full skirt. Perhaps it is because the little sleeves are mere puffs; or perhaps—and it is suspected that this is the real reason—it is because what looked at first like a very deep berth of lace gathered at the neck on a velvet band is soon seen to be a separate lace collar, which, removed, shows the dress to be complete and ready for an evening function.

Changeable Silk Used for New Spring Hats

Among the new bonnets from Paris are changeable bengalines. One has no idea how becoming this changeable silk is when fashioned into millinery. Many early spring hats of silk or satin have upturned front brims, the brims being rather wide at front and sides and entirely missing in the rear. These familiar off-the-face models which were very popular a season or so ago are most effective when the brim is of silk and the crown of milan straw. A rhinestone pin acts as a front trimming.

Mystery of Instinct Puzzle to Scientists

How successive generations of ants learn to milk the aphides is a mystery that cannot be explained on any theory of heredity, for the ants which do the milking are workers, sexless insects which leave no offspring. It is, therefore, quite impossible that they should transmit their training to offspring which they do not have.

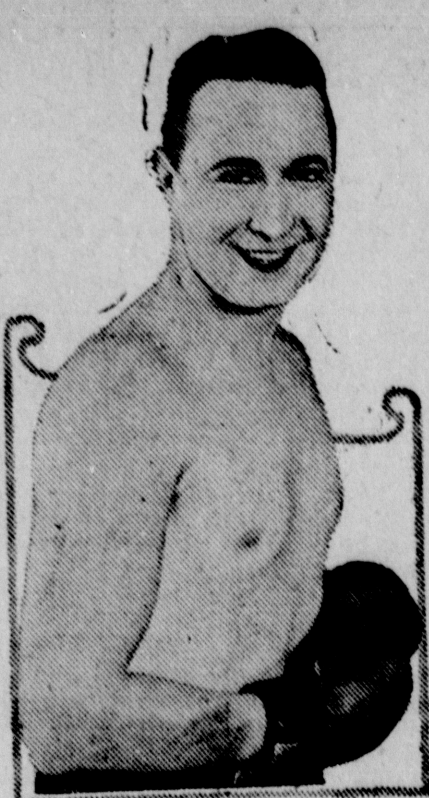

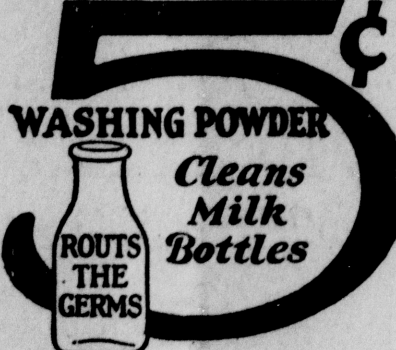

The "milk," which the aphides give up to the ants as contentedly as a cow gives her milk, is the juice of plants sucked up by the aphides and transformed in their bodies to a sirup of invert sugar or glucose. This is the so-called "honey-dew" often found in vast quantities on plants. Some species of ants merely lick this up, but others stroke the aphides to persuade them to "give down," just as the hired man of the farm induces the cow.

In return for this service the ants fight the enemies of the aphides, carry them to safety in times of danger, take care of their eggs, place the aphides where they will get the best of food, and shelter them in their nests in cold weather.

"Hearth Money"

"Hearth money," levied in England between 1653 and 1690, was a tax on domestic fires, and had to be paid to the king. The clergy had their innings, also, by levying a tax known as that of "smoke farthings."

Sweet Romance of Rustic and City Girl in Film

Robert Z. Leonard has become famous for directing pictures that appeal primarily to the heart and the eye. Never does he burden his audience with any well-meant lesson or "moral," as he believes that entertainment as entertainment should never become "preachy."

So in his production of "Bright Lights," which is the attraction at the Lyceum Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday, there is no moral, unless it is to "be yourself."

Charles Ray and Pauline Starke are co-starred in the picture. Ray plays the part of the rube who unsuccessfully tries to imitate the city slicker in order to impress his chorus girl sweetheart.

Ancient Quotation

The quotation, "There is no book so bad but something good may be found in it," is from Cervantes' "Don Quixote." Pliny the Younger also ascribes the saying to Pliny the Elder in a slightly different form: "No book is so bad but some good might be got out of it."

Value of Friends

Have you a friend whose loyalty you would not question, who always seems to understand, who does not expect more of you than you know your capacity to be, who is interested when you are pleased, or sympathetic when you are sad, who shows you that he values your good will more than he does the dollar in your pocket? Have you? Think twice before you answer, and if you have, stay by him, stick to him, and if ever need be give him the shirt off your back, even if it's the last one in your own wardrobe. A good friend and true is a God-given asset in this day of dollar-chasing commercialism.—Chilton (Ala.) County News.

THIRD in the World

-and Sales still mounting

During the first three months of 1926 Dodge Brothers, Inc., built and sold more motor vehicles than any other manufacturer in the world, except Ford and Chevrolet.

71,189 retail deliveries were made by Dodge Brothers Dealers in the United States and Canada between January second and April third. This represents a gain of 37 per cent over the same period last year and 69 per cent over the first quarter of 1924!

Third largest in the world! And sales CONTINUING to mount week after week to new record breaking levels.

In fact, during the week ending April 24th retail sales reached the remarkable total of 9,566—the greatest single week in Dodge Brothers history!

These figures are all the more significant when you realize that the gain of the industry as a whole over last year is only 12 per cent.

There could be no more convincing evidence that today's product is regarded as better than ever before and that the present prices make it the most impressive value Dodge Brothers have ever offered.

1926 A GOOD RESORT YEAR

"THE season of 1926 gives every indication of being the best resort year the northwest has had," says H. C. Hotaling, secretary of the Ten Thousand Lakes Association.

"Everyone is optimistic as to 1926. Resort owners and summer hotel men in hundreds of instances are planning on extensions and improvements. Several new hotels are contemplated. A number of new resorts will also be established.

"The fame of our wonderful highways is growing continually and as a result the influx of visitors will continue to grow with each recurring year.

"Roger Babson, the statistician, who was one of the prophets of the Florida situation, has made it plain that the next place to look for advancement and growth is the lake country, which of course includes not only Minnesota, but Wisconsin and Michigan.

"Questionnaires were sent out by the Ten Thousand Lakes Association to the resorts of the state concerning the amount of building they intend to do during the 1926 season and although only about 10 per cent made returns, those that did answer estimated the improvements and new building projects they have in mind will amount to approximately $900,000.

"While we believe that this figure includes a good proportion of the big resort building plans for 1926, it does not include any of the expenditures that will be made in private summer homes, many of which will be built by people of other states, and if it would be possible, at the close of the 1926 season, to get complete data concerning the actual amount of money spent in buildings erected to take care of the tourist traffic, the figures would amount to astounding proportions, and no doubt would reach close to $2,000,000."

MOTHER'S DAY

THE custom of displaying filial veneration antedates the Christian era. It was displayed in rites and ceremonies in pagan days and deeply affected primitive emotions.

Authorities are of the opinion that the earliest recorded formal mother worship appears in the ceremonies by which Rhea, the "great mother of the gods," was worshiped in Asia Minor. This worship was introduced into Rome 250 years before Christ and ceremonies were held on the Ides of March.

With the advent of the Christian era the festival retained many of its pagan forms but with a new spirit, including an honor to the Mother Church. Hundreds of years ago, when boys and girls were bound out as apprentices and servants, Mid-Lent Sunday was set aside for them to visit their mothers taking some little gift. This became known as Mothering Sunday.

It is a far cry from this quaint Mid-Lent observance to our American Mother's Day. The observance of the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day has now become firmly established in this country. The object of the setting aside of this day is to honor the memories of mothers who have gone, to brighten the lives of those who remain and to foster among men, women and children the love of their homes and their parents.—Park Rapids Enterprise.

ON BEING USEFUL

MEN and women who sow the seed of constant useful activity reap the harvest of success from a soil fertilized by their own steady purpose. It would be as foolish to expect success without active exertion as to gather a crop before you plant the seed. But in cultivating that character which reaps true achievement you may sow in all seasons and gather the fruits with the serene assurance that even wind and weather—storm and stress—are a part of the process of personal growth.

Optimism is an ally of effort and success. It is the kernel of the nut, not the shell. It is the fine trait of the man, not the faults. It is the flowers on the hillside, not the dead leaves under the snow. It is the opportunity in any job, not the grind. It is up to the individual whether his world will be golden or drab. Optimism in a word is the eye of the soul. It is the color in the version revealing the fine beyond the coarse, the best beyond the worst.—Ironton News.

THE BRITISH SITUATION

As all the workers of Great Britain appear determined to walk out and strike, we wonder who is going to do the work of finding food enough to feed the people. Britain, that is the tight, little isle, can't raise enough food for its own needs.

London is dependent, day by day, on what is shipped in. Starvation will stop any strike, no matter how meritorious may be the demands of the strikers.

Somebody will have to feed and clothe and warm these various cities and as all the trades workers may go out with the coal miners, the government will be compelled to adopt measures to provide the necessities of life. The whole thing bids fair to become the greatest industrial crisis in all history.

ONCE IN A BLUE MOON

THE high school musical comedy, "Once in a Blue Moon," is going along with a swing and a dash, the costumes are here and there and the eye with their brilliance. When the colors on the gallant gentlemen from Gay Paree burst upon the eye and the ear, they ought to score a big hit.

The moon lady herself in her lustrous robes will descend from her shiny sphere to oversee the affairs of her lovers, and to clear up the tangled story of George and Sylvia.

Burglars flash through the gloom and give the villains a chance to do their stuff. From start to finish the play is interesting, and the students are putting forth every effort to make it a success. Tickets at Dunn's or at the theatre.

If you want to get your name and picture in the paper join a "Stay West" club. We hope the "Stay West" propaganda won't stop people from "Seeing America First." The "Stay West" holds good only until the old flivver gets a new crank shaft, universal joint and a few extra pinions, when the travel mania again gets in its work.

Yes, we had the right hunch. On Egg Day, May 1, advocated to extend the use of eggs, the hen fruit jumped in price because of the demand created.

Not Hard for Experts to Detect Fake Gems

Jewel forgers have become so clever that a special gem-testing institute has been established in Vienna, says Popular Mechanics Magazine, and similar studies are being carried on in this country to detect imitations.

Imitation diamonds are numerous and it is possible to make real ones in the laboratory, but the cost of the process is about $200,000 a carat, while natural ones can be purchased at from $100 to $200 a carat. Rubies can be made by laboratory methods in about six hours, and some of them are so nearly like the real stones that other tests than with the eyes are necessary to distinguish them.

While the synthetic emerald has brilliance and realistic color, it usually can be told from a genuine one with little difficulty. They are often built up in three parts, which are fastened by invisible cement. The top and the bottom part may be glass crystals cut in many facets with a thin shaving of a real emerald between them to give the color. Others may have a slight cavity between the two crystals which is filled with a green liquid. Both imitations are easily detected by submerging the stone in a certain kind of oil and holding it up to the light.

Pride of Scotland Not Alcohol Addict

Sir James Crichton Browne, a medical man, has published a postmortem diagnosis on Robert Burns, the Scotch poet, which aims to break down the sad and sordid figure of tradition and substitute one of an Ayrshire plowboy who was "on the whole a temperate fellow for his time," though cursed with a poor constitution, the New York Times asserts.

Sir James submits that heart disease arising out of rheumatism acquired in youth, and not drink and debauchery, as generally held, caused the poet's "unconscious suicide." He goes over the records and shows that not a single contemporary of Burns noted in him symptoms which might indicate the effect, direct or indirect, of chronic alcoholism.

The accepted legend springs apparently from the Currie biography. Now Currie, Sir James points out, figured in his day as a temperance zealot. He gathered and preserved in his "Life of Burns" much information that might otherwise have passed forgotten, but the reformer won out. He seized the opportunity to point a moral, and in so doing deformed his tale.

And They Believed It

At one time biology was one of the "stiffest" courses at Washington and Lee university. Freshmen who dreaded the course were led by upper classmen to the skeleton of "Traveler," the famous gray charger that bore Gen. Robert E. Lee through the Civil war, in the university museum. There they were told that if they wrote their names on "that sacred relic of southern biology" they would never flunk or fail in that subject. Hundreds of the freshmen believed it. As a result the skeleton of the famous charger became covered with inked and penciled names of five generations of Washington and Lee students. The white bones became black. So the authorities recently ordered the skeleton given a thorough bath and mounted high up on a balcony and locked against those who might seek to carry on the quaint old custom at the university.—Pittsfield Magazine.

First Cross-Word Puzzles

The development of the acrostic into the cross-word, or at least the development of the cross-word principle beyond the initial letters of each line, seems to have been the work of Venantius Honorius Clementianus Fortunatus, a Christian poet, who was born in north Italy about 535 A. D. He compiled verses in which both the first and last letters of each verse when read vertically added two verses to the poem. He also made verses in which the letters within the lines make sense if taken in a cruciform pattern. This, of course, called for a spacing of the letters to enable them to be read horizontally and vertically—an essential feature of the cross-word. These poems were lost for many years and were first published in 1603 by Christopher Brower, who had discovered them in a manuscript at St. Gall, Switzerland.

Man Most Curious

It is rather unfair to women as a sex that they have somehow achieved the reputation of being curious. For, as a matter of cold fact, men usually are far more bitten with curiosity than are their sisters and their wives, says P. Beaufoy in the London Mail.

Walk along any street at any hour when road excavations are proceeding and navvies are doing mysterious things. You will at once perceive males of all ages, sizes and classes intensely watching operations which they must have witnessed scores of times previously. But you will not see a vestige of anything feminine.

Why Worry?

Lord Darling, a celebrated English barrister, was addressing the court when he became so engrossed in his case that he completely overlooked the fact that it was past time for adjournment. The court asked: "Mr. Darling, have you noticed the position of the hands of the clock?"

Darling—Yes, sir; but with respect I see nothing to cause anxiety. They seem to me to be where they usually are at this time of the day.

King of U. S. Gypsies Returns With Queen-Bride He Wooed and Won After Love Quest in Europe

Because of a dearth of good old-fashioned prospective Queens (among the five or six hundred gypsy families in America, Frank Kaslov, King of all the Gypsies in the United States, went abroad last November. He visited Milan first, but that was "a bum tip." So he went to Marseilles and there he met and wooed in 100 per cent American fashion Paras Kevi. He won her hand and recently they arrived in New York where King Frank has headquarters at 111 Bowery. Queen Paras was born in Greece and is quite wealthy.

Use Scientific Methods for Growing Orchids

Because of the rareness and beauty of the orchid several florists in the United States are devoting their efforts to growing orchid plants from seeds. This "aristocrat of the flower kingdom" was formerly imported from the mountainous districts of the tropics, where it grows clinging to trees. Manufactured gas now makes this unnecessary.

The seed of the orchid is almost microscopic in size. Since it is incapable of self-germination, scientific methods are necessary. The seeds are first placed in a glass flask, containing a specially prepared liquid, which furnishes carbon dioxide and moisture. It is necessary to keep the temperature at 90 degrees in the daytime and 70 degrees at night. The plants are grown in flasks for the first year. After that they are transferred to pots from year to year. The plant starts to flower at the age of five or six years.

In the propagating house, where the plants are extremely delicate, they are kept warm by gas. The fact that gas can be controlled easily and efficiently makes it invaluable in orchid culture, as any sudden change in temperature would cause the loss of many years' work.

New Yorker Who Made Lobster Dish Famous

One Ben Wenberg, a bean of his time, and a crony of Charles Delmonico, one of the four members of the family that made Delmonico's famous as the best restaurant in America, was responsible for the first concocting of lobster a la Newberg. Every Sunday at noon Mr. Wenberg would make his ceremonious entry into the dining room at Delmonico's, and take a seat at a table invariably reserved for him. In one of the pockets of his silk-velvet embroidered waistcoat he always carried a small bottle of the fiery red pepper which lent its peculiar savor to the method he had invented for preparing lobster. The waiters brought him all the rest of the condiments, sauces, wines, and the other ingredients, as well as the chafing dish he employed. This concoction was known first as Lobster a la Wenberg, but after a quarrel between the two friends, Mr. Charles Delmonico ordered its name changed on the menu cards to read, Lobster a la Newberg; and, since the two never were reconciled, so the name remains.

Good Work Wins

The following statement appeared in an article in the Republican of Galena, Kansas, for March 26, 1926:

"The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is the greatest commercial organization in the United States and its efforts and business penetrate the known world. Its policy toward employees may well be used as the criterion for all business. It is the most liberal that has been established. Every employe has that golden opportunity to prove his worth and his reward is in his own grasp."

It is natural that this policy should meet the approval of all true Americans for it is essentially democratic in character. But such unsolicited praise is very gratifying to the management of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana). The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) believes in Fairness, Justice and Equity, and it believes in giving all its employes equal chances to make good.

In the huge organization of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) every employe, no matter what his task, is recognized as an individual, with rights equal to those of any other man.

Good work, honest effort, and ability are quickly observed and appreciated. Promotions reward the deserving, and many of the executives of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) today first entered the Company in a humble capacity.

Success in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) does not lean upon superficial props. It is built upon a solid base of actual worth. Golden opportunities for advancement are not shaken like apples from a tree, but earned by steady climbing on the ladder of earnest work.

This democratic policy has resulted in an organization of loyal, interested men and women who work with enthusiasm, knowing that every effort is appreciated.

The close cooperation of its employes makes possible, to a large degree, the comprehensive service the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is able to render the thirty million people of the Middle West.

Every man in the organization is not only interested in his task, but anxious to do it better—and you sense this enthusiasm at every Standard Oil Company (Indiana) Service Station.

It is this wonderful spirit prevailing throughout the organization that has made it possible for the Company to take its place among the foremost Service organizations of America.

HIGH SCHOOL IS CLOSED FOR PUPIL

LEON LINDSETH, MADISON, DIED FROM HEART ATTACK WHILE SINGING

Madison, Minn., May 3.—(UP)—Madison high school will be closed tomorrow in tribute to Leon Lindseth, 19, who died from a heart attack during singing contests at Marshall.

Lindseth, a member of the high school glee club, was keenly interested in the musical contest. The excitement of competition coupled with the physical exertion was said to have brought on his death.

The afternoon trials were done and Leon with his three companions hurried to a Marshall hotel to rehearse their evening program. As the four young men entered the room, Lindseth collapsed and died before medical aid could be summoned.

The funeral Tuesday will be attended by the entire student body. The singing club of which Lindseth was a member will provide music and the chair which was his will be draped in black.

BRITAIN MOBILIZES FOR INDUSTRIAL STRUGGLE

BRITISH ARMY ORDERED TO STAND BY

London, May 3.—All leave was suspended in the British army today. Britain's army was ordered today to stand by for any emergency. Every regiment was ordered to be prepared to move at two hours' notice.

GENERAL STRIKE IS INEVITABLE AT MIDNIGHT

London, May 3.—A general strike at midnight tonight is inevitable, A. J. Cook, secretary of the Miners' federation, informed the United Press today.

"We have no intention whatever of resuming negotiations with the government," Cook said.

Cook, after conferences with other labor leaders, made his statement, but so far the general council of the Trades Union congress has not made so drastic a declaration.

If Cook's prophecy is borne out, 4,000,000 workers representing the remainder of the entire British trades union movement will go on strike at midnight. The 1,000,000 mine workers went out Friday night.

Cook said he expected the strike to last about a fortnight and to result in a general election which would oust Premier Baldwin and the conservative party from power and return the labor party to Downing Street.

"A general strike is absolutely certain to commence at midnight. There is no hope whatever of averting it," Cook said to the United Press.

With Cook's word the labor strategy was revealed. The labor movement, which grew in Britain before the war, languished during it and which elevated Ramsay MacDonald to the premiership in 1923, has put its hopes of immediately returning to power on the outcome of the present industrial crisis.

Secretary Bevan of the Transport Workers' union emphatically confirmed Cook's statement that a general strike at midnight was inevitable.

AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR CONCERNED

By S. P. HOLLINGSWORTH
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, May 3.—Officials of the American Federation of Labor are deeply concerned over the industrial crisis in Great Britain with the virtually certain prospects of a general strike there at midnight.

The gravity of the situation today prevents any random statements, Frank Morrison, secretary to the federation, declared, but it became known that President William Green was to take up the question of policy of American labor toward their English brother workers at headquarters here tomorrow.

John L. Lewis, president of the International Mine Workers of America, visited Washington unheralded today and conferred briefly with Secretary of Labor Davis. While it was surmised he sought counsel as to labor's attitude in the international strike situation, the department characterized the conference as not especially important.

TO PREVENT COAL EXPORT FROM GERMANY

Berlin, May 3.—"All conceivable measures to prevent the export of German coal to Britain will be taken by the Miners' Union of Germany," a union proclamation announced today.

3 LONDON PAPERS ARE IDLE TODAY

London, May 3.—Three London newspapers were idle today as a result of the industrial dispute, which began Friday with a strike or lock-out of 1,000,000 British mine workers.

The Daily Mail did not appear this morning. The mechanical staffs of the Evening News and the Evening Standard walked out this afternoon. The Evening Star's early editions were delayed by strike threats.

In each case the trouble arose when the union men objected to editorializing condemning the strike, prepared for publication in the papers.

DUTCH TO PREVENT COAL SHIPMENTS

Amsterdam, May 3.—Executives of the International Transport Workers' organization on the continent to exert efforts toward preventing shipments of coal to Great Britain and enrollment of crews on British vessels.

GENERAL TRADE COUNCIL STATEMENT

London, May 3.—The general council of the Trades Union congress issued a statement today saying that it was convinced that a settlement of the industrial crisis could be reached if negotiations were resumed.

In the house of commons lobbies tonight the odds favored settlement. It was felt that all concerned were a bit appalled at what they had done.

AMERICAN MINERS HAVE NO AGREEMENTS

Indianapolis, May 3.—American miners have no agreement with operators by which they could curb exportation of coal to Great Britain as a sympathetic move for 1,000,000 striking miners of that nation. It was learned today at international headquarters of the United Mine Workers.

Even if such an agreement existed there would be some reluctance to exercise it because anthracite mined in Wales was shipped to America in large quantities during the recent walkout of 158,000 eastern miners.

BALDWIN CONFERS WITH TRADE UNIONS

By CLIFFORD L. DAY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

London, May 3.—Premier Baldwin and J. H. Thomas, representing the parliamentary laborites, resumed contact tonight in a final effort to avert the general strike of Trades Union members called for tonight.

Thomas had offered in a speech in the house of commons to assist in a peace effort. Baldwin, accordingly met him less than four hours before the general strike was to become effective.

Following the hopeful statement of the council, it was understood Premier Baldwin and J. H. Thomas conferred regarding a basis of resuming negotiations.

In his house of commons speech, which may go down in history as the turning point toward peace in the present crisis, Thomas said:

"I feel it in my bones that a last effort ought to be made. Don't let's lose our heads, despite what may happen. I will still render my contribution toward solution at whatever time it may be asked."

A. J. Cook, secretary of the miners' federation, denied that Baldwin and the Trades Union council had resumed conference.

"There is no foundation for this rumor," Cook told the United Press. "They probably will not meet again and the strike begins at midnight."

It was noteworthy, however, that Cook is not a member of the council which has sole charge of the negotiations and could take any action decided upon without further consulting the miners.

SEN. COPELAND DRAWS LESSON FROM STRIKE

Washington, May 3.—The British coal strike should be a warning to the United States to prepare against any similar emergency in this country, Senator Copeland, democrat, New York, told the United Press today. Commenting on the strike, Copeland said a similar condition but in a smaller way was possible in this country next year, when the Jacksonville wage agreement between the soft coal operators and the miners expires.

What Are You Doing For Your Puny Child?

One boy gained 11 pounds in 7 weeks and is now strong and healthy

For weak, frail, under-developed children—and especially those that have rickets, and need a sure builder that promotes the growth of teeth and bones, cod liver oil is the one medicine supreme—nothing helps like it.

But it is nasty and repulsive and evil smelling and nearly always upsets children's stomachs—so now up-to-date chemists advise McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets.

Children love them as they do candy, because they are sugar coated and easy to take. One boy gained 11½ pounds in seven weeks, and is now healthy and happy—thousands of other children have grown strong and robust.

Sixty tablets for 60 cents at H. P. Dunn's, Johnson's Pharmacy and all druggists—but be sure and ask for McCoy's—the original and genuine.

Give them to the sickly, frail child for 30 days, and if they don't help—wonderfully, your druggist is authorized to hand you back the money you paid for them. —Advt.

UPSETS SHOWN IN BOTH MAJOR LEAGUES

YANKEES SIT ATOP OF THE AMERICAN CLAN

IN NATIONAL LEAGUE ONCE DEPISED ROBINS HEAD DRIVE

CHICAGO CUBS HAVE HAMMERED THEIR WAY TO SECOND PLACE

By PAUL W. WHITE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, May 3.—Although the presence of the New York Yankees atop the American League may continue to surprise baseball enthusiasts the measure of astonishment at this phenomenon does not compare with that afforded in the National League situation.

Teams now riding one-two in the senior circuit are the once despised Brooklyn Robins and the Chicago Cubs.

Brooklyn is the same aggregation that during the training season lost so many games to the Yankees. The Cubs are, in general, the same outfit which obtained a comfortable berth in the cellar of the league and wallowed in it last September.

The early season success of the Robins is due in large part to the super excellence of the pitching performance turned in by several members of the Robins' troupe. Jesse Petty, who has won four games and allowed two earned runs in 38 innings, is the leading pitcher in any league. Jeff Barnes, Doug McWeeny and Burleigh Grimes also have contributed well pitched games, although the great Dazzy Vance has as yet to break into the winning column.

If Dazzy regains his form and the other mound experts on the Robins' staff continue to function, Brooklyn may be in there fighting for a first division spot through the season.

The April success of the Cubs is the most remarkable because in the western half of the circuit they were supposed to face a consistently tough opposition. The Pirates, Cardinals and Reds thus far provided all the opposition the Cubs have waded through and there are normally lots of teams easier to beat.

But the Chicagoans did not seem to realize that they were supposed to be a green team, which must be beaten as a matter of course. For four days now they have come from behind to win over St. Louis.

The Cubs are packing a vicious punch these days and hitting when hits are useful. Rival managers are beginning to consider them serious.

The White Sox made 18 hits and made it four straight from Cleveland, 8 to 3.

Jess Barnes held Boston safe while the Robins were clouting four pitchers and Brooklyn won 9 to 1.

Taking the Senators into camp while the Colonels were losing to the Brewers, the Millers stepped nearer first place in the American association.

Coming back strong in the last five innings after the Senators had scored most of their runs in the first part of the game the Millers won 12 to 10.

Keeping the Colonels' nine hits scattered, Joe Eddleman pitched the Brewers to a 5 to 2 win.

Pirate Pilot Quite Optimistic

Bill McKechnie, veteran pilot of the Pittsburgh Pirates, can "see no reason" why his club should not repeat this season its triumphal march of 1925 through the National league and again capture the world's championship.

"Our chances for winning another championship are extremely bright," McKechnie said to the Associated Press. In addition to the same players who defeated Washington in the last world's series, the club has been strengthened greatly by addition of Paul Waner and Hal Rhyme from San Francisco.

"Waner is a wonderful hitter and will be in left field on opening day, replacing Clyde Barnhart. Rhyme has shown exceptional ability at second, third and short. Even if he should not crowd out Eddie Moore at second base, he will make a valuable utility infielder.

"In the pitching department, Sheehan has shown enough to warrant saying he will be of great service this season. Of the newcomers, Crowder and Songer give every indication of being major league timber.

"I feel we have the hardest hitting and best base running club in the National league. Backing this up with such fielders as Wright, Traynor, Carey and Cuyler and better than average pitchers, I can see no reason why we should not repeat in the National league and successfully defend our laurels against the American league champions next fall."

PRAYER ON THE FOOTBALL FIELD

BELONGS THERE AS MUCH AS TO THE PULPIT, SAYS STAR

Chicago, May 3.—(UP)—Prayer belongs to the football field as much as to the pulpit and a praying team stands a good chance of getting there, Tim Lowry, Northwestern University football star, told a large church audience.

"Just before the Indiana-Northwestern game last year," Tim said, "we worried a great deal about the outcome. Then we saw that bunch of big husky Indiana players coming toward us and we knew something had to be done quick.

"Fellows, I said, I believe in weekly prayer and we better pray. We did and won a great victory.

"When the next game came, every fellow prayed again. You do not need to think that churches have a copyright on prayer."

Names you should know

You like to know names that everybody knows—name of the man who tied lightning to a kite; name of the man who watched a tea kettle and went out and made an engine. Just knowing such names gives you pleasure.

Yet there are names that thousands of people know that can give you much more pleasure in a much more personal way. Names that stand for the best things to eat, to wear, to sleep on, you can buy. Names that if connected with the salad dressing, hat, mattress you select—or any other desirable thing you select—mean it is most desirable. Names written large in advertisement. Advertisements tell why those are wise names for you to know. Why such names greet you in the best groceries, department and hardware stores. Why those names are in the buying vocabulary of thousands . . . are believed in by thousands . . . justify belief!

Read the advertisements. Don't ask vaguely in a store for "cold cream," "a skillet," "a vacuum cleaner." Ask for So-and-So's Cold Cream, So-and-So's Skillet, So-and-So's Vacuum Cleaner. Use the names, you have learned through advertisements, that stand for the product that means most to you and most to most everybody.

HAIRLESS PIGS, SHEEP GOITRE, ARE FOUND

A good many reports are coming into the county agent's office at Park Rapids this spring of sows farrowing hairless pigs and of considerable trouble at farrowing time. The hairless pigs, goitre in sheep and calves, is due to lack of sufficient iodine, and this condition can be prevented by feeding potassium iodine to the dam a couple of three months before farrowing, lambing or calving. The simplest method of feeding is to dissolve an ounce of potassium iodine in a gallon of water and feed a teaspoonful of this per sow per day and a tablespoonful to a cow. By doing this some very expensive losses can be prevented.

AT NEW PARK

Real Transformation of Song, Dance, Etc., From Colonial to Present Days

The real transformation of song, dance, and melody from the colonial day to the present modern jazz era will be typified tomorrow evening at the Park theatre in the first act on the bill by Josephine Van Bergen in "Moments Melody." The act consists of the playing of violin, piano, singing, cello, and dancing, and won favor in the Keith houses in the east and the theatres on the A. & H. circuit.

Not actually a funny boy, but a good looking chap who can amuse the audience with a gift of comedy chatter and singing. That is Glenn Runyan who takes the second act in "The Fun Boy."

Two "Dancing Daddies" are Ed. and Mack Williams, noted throughout the country for their ability in every kind of a dance that has a name. They take the third act.

The acrobatic act featuring the Roxana Trio in "European Novelty," is an act very unusual and interesting, with two men and one lady taking part.

Roscoe Ates and Dorothy Darling in "Beautiful and Dumby" in comedy, singing and talking, is an act hard to beat. Dorothy Darling is a beautiful miss with long curls and a beautiful voice while Ates is a comic.

NEW OUTBREAK IN BRUSH FIRES

Damages Recorded to 1,500 Acres
Grass, Brush and Forests

1 BARN, ETC., BURNED
Fire This Morning Northeast of Brainerd Swept Through
600 Acres

A new outbreak in the fire situation occurred over the week end with damaging results of over 1,500 acres of grass, brush and forest, one barn, two old buildings and some outbuildings, it was learned this morning from the office of the forest ranger here.

Fire broke out yesterday on the west side of the Mississippi river, southwest of Merrifield, about four miles northeast of Brainerd. The fire swept through 600 acres in that vicinity but was controlled by the evening.

Some 500 acres of brush, grass and forest were burnt over Saturday in section 13 and 14, St. Mathias township. One barn and two unoccupied outbuildings came within the list of damage done. The fire was under control by yesterday.

In Section 15, Richardson township, Morrison county, however a more complicated situation arose, Saturday. Fifty settlers of Morrison county turned out to fight the flames thus saving the farm houses in the path of the fire. Two old buildings and hay stacks however were destroyed. The rain played an important part in the fighting of the fire. A heavy downfall at 2 o'clock checked the fire.

Peat fires broke out on right of ways of Trunk Highway No. 5 near McGrath. The fires started Saturday, the highway department fighting them with the aid of three pump outfits supplied by the forestry department.

Cuyuna Farmer Seeking Lost Chicago Daughter

Theodore Anderson, a farmer living north of Cuyuna, has gone to Chicago to join his son, Bernell Anderson, of Madison, Wis., and other relatives in that city, together with police and detectives, in a search for his daughter, Miss Isadora Anderson, who strangely disappeared from a Chicago hospital where she was employed as a nurse, some two weeks ago.

She left the hospital to go out for dinner and did not return, and those with whom she lived and worked in that city were suspicious of kidnapping or something similar having happened to her.—Crosby Courier.

ROBERT SCOTT ON TRIAL TODAY

ACCUSED OF MURDER OF JOSEPH MAURER IN DRUG STORE HOLDUP

Chicago, May 3.—(UP)—Robert Scott, who, with his brother, Russell, is accused of the murder of Joseph Maurer, in a drug store holdup, today goes on trial for holdup in connection with the murder.

Robert is the elusive brother who was missing during the various appeals after Russell Scott had been found guilty of Maurer's murder and sentenced to hang. Russell contended Robert did the murdering.

The younger Scott recently was found in the San Quentin, Cal., prison and returned to Chicago to answer the murder indictment. He has constantly denied knowledge of the murder or holdup.

Russell Scott is now in the state hospital at Chester, Ill., having been sent there after being found insane, just a few hours before he was to have been hanged.

BRITISH STRIKE HITS STOCK MARKET

New York, May 3.—(UP)—Britain's impending general strike was felt here today in all stock and bond exchanges, especially the stock market where prices were depressed in every section of the list, losses ranging up to more than five points.

Trading was on a slightly larger scale than the last week in April but the total was well under 2,000,000 as contrasted with large days in March. Rails, oils, utilities, motors, steels and specialties were under selling pressure with losses coming in big jumps. Such issues as General Electric, Hudson, Mack, American Smelting, Atlantic Refining, Woolworth, Dupont and Southern Railway were among the worst losers.

Money renewed at 3½ per cent and indications were that funds would lend out at a smaller rate unless the British strike situation interfered.

Printing

EVERY piece of your printed material, from the plain bill-head up to the most elaborate catalogue, is your personal messenger.

You want your messenger to say something different from Bill Jones', because your business is entirely different in nature.

In other words, you want printed matter which represents you alone—you want something different from the ordinary run of stuff.

It's the little touches of distinction, the personal attention to details, that make printed matter which we print represent you—and you alone.
